

Urban Building Projects Ltd created a bespoke double storey extension with cedar cladding and art deco features at this property in Lymm. This particular project was nominated for a 2014 LABC Building Excellence Award.

This document contains a set of photographs detailing the finished final exterior.

